Stuffed Animal Sleepover

Have you ever wondered what happens in a library after it closes?

In honor of National Library Week, we are sharing this secret world with your stuffed animal friend during our “Stuffed Animal Sleepover” event.

Here's how it will work...

Friday, April 10th from 3:30 until 5:00 - Drop off one of your stuffed animals at the library. While you're here you will: 1) create a name tag for your animal, 2) hear a bedtime story, and 3) tuck your animal in for the night.

 Saturday, April 11th from 10:00 until 10:30 - Pick up your stuffed animal and enjoy a light breakfast snack.

 Saturday, April 11th from 10:30 until 11:30 - Special Saturday Storytime Program featuring: music, a story, a craft, and a look at the sleepover adventures enjoyed by your stuffed animal friends.

Registration by April 8th would be appreciated.

You can call the library at (618) 443-5014, email us at spartaillinoislibrary@gmail.com, or visit us at the library.

* If you aren't able to make it to library during these times. You can pick up your animal at any point during regular business hours (10-4:00 pm on Saturday or the next week).
